I was in the winter of my life- and the men I met along the road were my only summer.

At (1) I fell sleep with vision of myself dancing and laughing and crying with them.
Three year down the line of being on an endless (2) tour and my memories of them were the only things that sustained me, and my only real happy times. I was a singer, not very popular one, who once has dreams of (3) a beautiful poet-
but upon an unfortunate series of events saw those dreams dashed and divided like million stars in the night sky that I wished on over and over again-sparkling and broken.
But I really didn't mind because I knew that it takes getting everything you ever wanted and then losing it to know what true freedom is.
When the people I used to know found out what I had been doing, how I had been living- they asked me why.
But there's no use in talking to people who have a home, they have no idea what its like to seek safety in other people, for home to be wherever you lied you head. I was always an unusual girl, my (4) told me that I had a chameleon soul.
Chameleon Soul.

I am alone in the night

Been tryin' hard not to get into trouble, but I

I've got a war in my mind

So, I just ride

Just ride, I just ride, I just ride

Dying young and playing hard

That's the way my father made his life an art
