Crying Lightning by Arctic Monkeys

Outside the (1) by the cracker factory		Like you'd never lost a war
You (2) practicing a (3) trick		Although I (14) so not to suffer
And my thoughts got rude		The indignity of a reaction
As you talked and chewed		There was no (15) to grasp or gaps to claw
On the (4) of your pick and mix		And (16) pastimes (17) of
So, you're mistaken if you're thinking		the strange
That I haven't (5) called cold before		And twisted and deranged
As you bit into your strawberry lace		And I hate (18) little game
And then (6) me your attention		You had called "Crying lightning"
In the form of a gobstopper		And how you (19) to aggravate
It's all you had left and it was going to waste		The icky man on rainy afternoons
Your (7) (8)	of	Uninviting
the strange		But not half as impossible
And twisted and deranged		As everyone (20) you are
And I love that little game		"Crying lightning"
You had called "Crying lightning"		Your pastimes consisted of the strange
And how you (9) to aggravate		Twisted and deranged
The ice-cream man on rainy afternoons		And I hate that little (21) you had called
The next time that I caught my own reflection		Crying lightning
It was on its way to meet you		Crying lightning
Thinking of excuses to postpone		Crying lightning
You never looked (10) yourself		Crying lightning
From the side but your profile		Your pastimes, consisted of the strange
Could not hide the fact		And (22) and deranged
You (11) I was approaching your throne		And I hate that little game
With (12) arms you occupied		You had called "Crying"
The bench like a toothache
Stood and (13) your chest out
