Even The Nights Are Better by Air Supply

| EVEN THE NIGHTS ARE BETTER                           | 'Cause now you've (14) a fire start           |
|--|---|
| Air Supply   | And I, I can see (15) you feel the same way   |
| (J.L. Wallance/Kenneth Bell/Terry Skinner)           | I never dreamed there'd be someone to hold me |
| I, I was the lonely one                              | Until you told me and now that I've found you |
| Wondering what went wrong, why love had gone         | Even the nights are better                    |
| And (1) me lonely                                    | Now (16) we're (17) together                  |
| I, I was so confused, feeling like I'd just (2) used | Even the nights are better                    |
| Then you (3) to me and my                            | Since I found you, oh                         |
| (4) left me  | Even the days are brighter                    |
| I used to think I was tied to a heartache            | When (18) you love's (19)                     |
| That was the heartbreak, but now (5) I've found      | ya  |
| you  | Even the nights are better                    |
| Even the nights are better                           | Since I found you                             |
| Now (6) we're (7) together                           | I never dreamed there'd be (20) to            |
| Even the nights are better                           | (21) me                                       |
| Since I found you, oh                                | Until you (22) me and now that I've           |
| Even the days are brighter                           | (23) you                                      |
| When (8) you love's (9) ya                           | Even the nights are better                    |
| Even the (10) are better                             | Now that we're (24) together                  |
| Since I found you                                    | Even the nights are better                    |
| You, you (11) just what to do                        | Since I found you, oh                         |
| 'Cause you had been (12) too                         | Even the (25) are brighter                    |
| And you showed me how                                | When someone you love's beside ya             |
| To ease the pain and                                 | Even the (26) are better                      |
| You did (13) than mend a broken heart                | Since I found you                             |
