Is There Something by Christopher Cross

| Lately I see clouds of sorrow in your eyes          | And I can't go on                             |
|---|---|
| Some (1) sadness you can never (2)                  | At least not like this                        |
| disguise  | I don't want to lose you                      |
| Now I'm scared to ask what it's leading to          | But what's the use of holding on              |
| But I'm more afraid of not asking you               | I don't really have you                       |
| Is there something that you want to tell me         | If the feeling's gone                         |
| Is there something that I ought to know             | Is there something I can do to reach you      |
| Are we something that's still (3)                   | Are we something more than history            |
| (4) for   | If there's no way to convince you to stay     |
| Or should I (5) let you go                          | And be the way we (8) to be                   |
| Is there something I can do to reach you            | Then there's something (9) I want to tell you |
| Are we something more than history                  | And I want you to believe it's true           |
| I'll find some way to convince you to stay          | We had something that I'll never forget       |
| If you (6) tell me honestly                         | Even if I wanted to                           |
| Is there something left of you and me               | 'Cause part of me will always be with you     |
| You've got secrets you've been keeping for too long |   |
| And I'm going (7) acting like there's nothing       |   |
| wrong   |   |
| I can taste the truth every time we kiss            |   |
