Even In The Quietest Moments by Supertramp

| Even in the quietest moments                                     | But still the tears keep falling                           |
|--|--|
| I (1) I knew what I had to do                                    | They're raining from the sky                               |
| And (2) though the sun is shining                                | Well there's a lot of me got to go under before I get high |
| Well I feel the rain here it comes again, dear                   | Don't you let the sun disappear                            |
| And even when you showed me                                      | Don't you let the sun disappear                            |
| My heart was out of tune   | Don't you let the sun be leaving                           |
| For there's a shadow of doubt that's not letting me find you too | No, you can't be leaving my life                           |
| soon   | Say that you won't be leaving my life                      |
| The music that you gave me                                       | Say that you won't be (6) my life                          |
| The language of my soul  | Say won't you please, stay won't you please                |
| Oh Lord, I want to be with you.                                  | Say won't you please, stay won't you please                |
| Won't you let me come in from the cold?                          | Lord, won't you come and get into my life                  |
| Don't you let the sun fade away                                  | Lord, won't you come and get into my life                  |
| Don't you let the sun (3) away                                   | Say won't you please, (7) won't you please                 |
| Don't you let the sun be leaving                                 | Say won't you please, stay won't you please                |
| Won't you come to me soon  | Lord, don't go   |
| And even though the stars are listening                          | And even when the song is over                             |
| And the ocean's deep, I just go to sleep                         | Where have I (8) was it just a dream?                      |
| And then I (4) a silent movie                                    | And though your door is always open                        |
| You become the star, is that what you are, dear?                 | Where do I begin may I please come in, dear?               |
| Your (5) tells a secret  |  |
| Your laughter brings me joy                                      |  |
| And a wonder of feeling I'm Nature's own little boy              |  |
