

And these are the hands we're given

Fill in the gaps

	Use (15) and let's start trying
I must've (1) a thousand dreams	To make it a (16) worth living in.
Been (2) by a million screams	I remember long ago -
I can hear the (3) feet	When the sun was shining
They're moving into the street.	The stars were bright
Now did you read the news today	All (17) the night
They say the danger's (4) away	And the sound of your laughter
But I can see the fire's still alight	As I held you tight
Burning into the night.	So (18) ago -
Too many men	I won't be (19) home tonight
Too many people	My generation will put it right
Making too (5) problems	We're not (20) making promises
And not (6) love to go round	That we know, we'll (21) keep.
Can't you see	Too (22) men
This is a land of confusion.	Too many people
This is the (7) we live in	Making too (23) problems
And (8) are the (9) we're given	And not much love to go round
Use (10) and let's (11) trying	Can't you see
To make it a place (12) in.	This is a land of confusion.
Superman where are you now	This is the (24) we live in
Everything's gone wrong somehow	And these are the hands we're given
The men of steel, men of power	Use them and let's start trying
Are losing control by the hour.	To make it a place (25) fighting for.
This is the time	This is the world we live in
This is the place	And (26) are the names we're given
So we look for the future	Stand up and let's start showing
But there's not much (14) to go round	Just where our lives are (27) to Tell me why, this is a land of confusion.
This is the world we live in
