Colours Of The Wind by Pocahontas

You think I'm an ignorant savage	Can you paint with all the colors of the wind?
And you've been so many places	Come run the hidden pine trails of the forest
I guess it (1) be so	Come (13) the (14)
But (2) I cannot see	(15) of the Earth
If the savage one is me	Come roll in all the riches all (16) you
How can there be so (3) that you don't know?	And for once, never (17) what they're worth
You don't know	The rainstorm and the (18) are my brothers
You think you own whatever land you land on	The (19) and the otter are my friends
The Earth is just a dead thing you can claim	And we are all connected to each other
But I (4) every rock and (5) and	In a circle, in a hoop (20) never ends creature	How high (21) the sycamore grow?
Has a life, has a spirit, has a name	If you cut it down, then you'll never know
You think the only (6) who are people	And you'll never hear the wolf cry to the (22) corn
Are the (7) who look and think like you	moon
But if you walk the footsteps of a stranger	For whether we are white or (23) skinned
You'll (8) things you never knew you	We need to sing (24) all the voices of the
(9) knew	mountains
Have you ever heard the (10) cry to the	We (25) to (26) with all the
(11) corn moon	(27) of the wind
Or asked the grinning bobcat why he grinned?	You can own the Earth and still Can you sing with all the (12) of the	All you'll own is Earth until mountains?	You can (28) with all the colors of the wind
Can you paint with all the colors of the wind?
