I was in the winter of my life- and the men I met along the road were my only summer.
At night I (1) sleep with (2) of myself dancing and laughing and crying with them.
Three year down the line of being on an (3) world tour and my memories of them were the only things that sustained me, and my only real happy times. I was a singer, not (4) popular one, who once has dreams of becoming a beautiful poet-but upon an unfortunate series of events saw those dreams dashed and divided like million stars in the night sky that I (5) on over and over again-sparkling and broken.
But I really didn't mind because I knew that it takes getting everything you ever (6) and (7)
(8) it to know what true (9) is.
When the people I used to know found out what I had been doing, how I had been living- they asked me why.
But there's no use in talking to people who have a home, they have no idea what its (10) to seek safety in other people, for home to be wherever you lied you head I was
for home to be wherever you lied you head. I was

I've been travellin' too long

I've been trying too hard

With one pretty song

I hear the birds on the summer breeze,

I drive fast

I am alone in the night

Been tryin' hard not to get into trouble, but I

I've got a war in my mind

So, I just ride

Just ride, I just ride, I just ride

Dying young and playing hard

I'm tired of driving 'till I see stars in my eyes

Baby, too much I strive, I just ride

I believe in the country America used to be. I believe in the

I believe in the freedom of the open road. And my motto is the

I believe in the kindness of strangers. And when I'm at war with myself- I Ride. I Just Ride.
