Fill in the gaps

were my only summer.
At night I fell sleep with vision of (1) dancing and laughing and crying with them.
Three year down the line of being on an endless world tour and my memories of them were the only things that sustained me, and my only real happy times. I was a singer, not very popular one, who once has dreams of becoming a beautiful poet-but upon an (2) series of events saw those dreams dashed and divided like million stars in the night sky that I wished on over and over again-sparkling and broken.
But I really didn't mind because I knew that it takes getting everything you ever wanted and then losing it to know what true freedom is.
When the people I used to know found out what I had been doing, how I had been living- they asked me why.
But there's no use in talking to people who have a home, they have no idea what its like to seek safety in other people, for home to be (3) you lied you head. I was always an unusual girl, my mother told me that I had a chameleon soul.
No moral compass pointing me due north, no fixed personality. Just an (4) indecisiveness that was as (5) as wavering as the ocean.
And if I said that I did't plan for it to turn out this way I'd be

I drive fast

Been tryin' hard not to get into trouble, but I

I've got a war in my mind

So, I just ride

Just ride, I just ride, I just ride

Dying young and playing hard

That's the way my father made his life an art

We have nothing to lose, nothing to gain, nothing we any more - $(10)_{-}$ except to make our lives into a work of art. LIVE FAST. DIE YOUNG. BE WILD. AND HAVE FUN. I believe in the country America used to be. I believe in the person I want to become, I believe in the freedom of the open road. And my motto is the same as ever-I believe in the kindness of strangers. And when I'm at war with myself- I Ride. I Just Ride. Who are you? Are you in touch with all your darkest fantasies? Have you created a life for yourself where you're free to experience them? I Have. I Am Fucking Crazy. But I Am Free.
