| Well, I'm the type of guy who never settles down   | Well, I (18) (19) town to town                  |
|--|---|
| Where pretty (1) are                               | I live life (20) a care                         |
| Well you'll know that I'm around                   | And I'm as happy as a clown                     |
| I kiss 'em and I love 'em                          | With my two fists of (21) but I'm goin' nowhere |
| 'cause to me they're all the same                  | And I'm the type of guy (22) likes to (23)      |
| I hug 'em and I squeeze 'em                        | around  |
| They don't even know my name                       | I'm never in one place                          |
| They call me the Wanderer                          | I roam from town to town                        |
| Yeah, the Wanderer                                 | And when I find myself                          |
| I roam around and round and round                  | A-fallin' for some girl                         |
| (Oh)   | Yeah, I hop on in that car of mine              |
| There's Flo on my (2) and there's Mary on my right | Drive around the world                          |
| And (3) is the (4) that I'll be with               | 'cause I'm the Wanderer                         |
| tonight  | Yeah, Wanderer                                  |
| And when she asks me which one I love the best     | I roam around and round                         |
| I (5) open my shirt and (6) Rosie on my            | And round and round                             |
| chest  | They call me the Wanderer                       |
| 'Cause I'm the Wanderer                            | Yeah, the Wanderer                              |
| Yeah, Wanderer                                     | I roam around and round                         |
| I roam (7) and round                               | And round and round and round and round         |
| And (8) and (9) and round                          | They call me the Wanderer                       |
| Well, I (10) from town to town                     | They call me the Wanderer                       |
| I live (11) without a care                         | I roam around and round                         |
| I'm as happy as a clown                            | And round and round                             |
| With my two (12) of iron but I'm goin' nowhere     | They call me the Wanderer                       |
| And I'm the (13) of guy (14) likes to              | Yeah, the Wanderer                              |
| roam around  | I (24) around and round                         |
| I'm never in one place                             | And (25) and (26) and round and                 |
| I roam from (15) to town                           | round and round                                 |
| And when I find myself                             | They call me the Wanderer                       |
| A-fallin' for some girl                            | Yeah, the Wanderer                              |
| Yeah, I hop on in that car of mine                 | I (27) around and round                         |
| And (16) around the world                          | And round and round                             |
| Yeah, I'm the Wanderer                             |   |
| Yeah, Wanderer                                     |   |
| I roam (17) and round                              |   |
| And round and round and round and round            |   |
