Crying Lightning by Arctic Monkeys

Outside the cafe by the cracker factory			Like you'd never lost a war
You were practicing a magic trick			Although I tried so not to suffer
And my (1) got rude			The indignity of a reaction
As you (2) and chewed			There was no cracks to grasp or gaps to claw
On the (3) of your pick and mix			And your pastimes consisted of the strange
So, you're mistaken if you're thinking			And twisted and deranged
That I haven't been (4)	(5)	before	And I hate that little game
As you bit into your strawberry lace			You had called "Crying lightning"
And then offered me your attention			And how you liked to aggravate
In the form of a gobstopper			The icky man on rainy afternoons
It's all you had left and it was going to waste			Uninviting
Your pastimes consisted of the strange			But not half as impossible
And twisted and deranged			As everyone assumes you are
And I (6) that little game			"Crying lightning"
You had called "Crying lightning"			Your pastimes consisted of the strange
And how you liked to aggravate			Twisted and deranged
The ice-cream man on rainy afternoons			And I hate that little game you had called
The next time that I caught my own reflection			Crying lightning
It was on its way to meet you			Crying lightning
Thinking of excuses to postpone			Crying lightning
You never looked like yourself			Crying lightning
From the (7) but your profile			Your pastimes, consisted of the strange
Could not hide the fact			And twisted and deranged
You knew I was approaching your throne			And I hate that little game
With folded arms you occupied			You had called "Crying"
The bench like a toothache
Stood and puffed your chest out
