My Guardian Angel by Place Vendome

I ve got the strange reeling	Could everything be a dream?
That I am never really alone	Guarding my heart, protecting my soul
I can feel her eyes (1) me	There is a guardian (5) here
Wherever I go, she will always know	She is watching over me
Suddenly I'm awake	Healing my wound, guiding me home
There is no one here all is empty here	There is a guardian angel here
Maybe it's a mistake	She is keeping me alive
Could everything be a dream?	My guardian angel
Guarding my heart, protecting my soul	Suddenly I'm awake
There is a guardian angel here	There is no one (6) all is (7)
She is watching over me	Maybe it's a mistake
Healing my wound, (2) me home	Could everything be a dream?
There is a (3) angel here	Guarding my heart, protecting my soul
She is keeping me alive	There is a (8) angel here
My guardian angel	She is watching over me
I'm looking in the mirror	Healing my wound, guiding me home
I can (4) see a stranger's face	There is a guardian angel here
Who am I turning into?	She is keeping me alive
Save me now, before it is too late	My guardian angel
Suddenly I'm awake
There is no one here all is empty here
Maybe it's a mistake
