Fill in the gaps

Do you think you'd still want to leave now?

When you were young You let him in Just to know to push away
You made it twenty one years
Before he (1)	you round
To giving up
We traded knowledge in Our fields of expertise and we partied away
And you gave up on everything
Do you think you'd still want to leave now?
You always were just a stubborn kid back then
I saw the (2) (3	3) you wrote down
On the back of your book
In the room where we (4)	our days
I remember you told me you threw
Your father's Jimmy Nail CD
Out of the window of his car
It didn't get you very far
In his good books
Because I know when you got home
He bent your spine over
The back of a kitchen chair
You lost so many days in there

You always were (5)	a stubborn kid back t	hen
saw the words that you wrote d	own
On the back of your book in the room
Where we spent our days
saw the words (6) yo	ou (7) c	wock
On the back of your book in the room
Where we spent our days
n the room where we spent our days thought I saw your reflection n the window of a passing car
But I guess I was wrong
All I am is wrong these days
Do you think you'd still want to leave now?
ou always were just a stubborn kid back then
saw the words that you wrote d	own
On the back of your (8)	_ in the room
Where we spent our days
saw the (9) that y	ou wrote down
On the back of your book in the room
Where we spent our days
