Through The Fire And The Flames by DragonForce

| On a cold winter morning, in the time before the light       | Running back through the mid-morning light             |
|--|--|
| In flames of death's eternal reign we ride towards the fight | There's a burning in my heart                          |
| And the darkness is falling down                             | We're banished from the time in the fallen land        |
| And the times are tough all right                            | To a light beyond the stars                            |
| The sound of evil laughter falls around the world tonight    | In the blackest dreams we do believe                   |
| Fighting high, fighting on for the steel                     | Our destiny this time                                  |
| Through the wastelands evermore                              | And (8) we'll all be free tonight                      |
| The scattered souls will (1) the hell bodies                 | And on the wings of a (9) so far beyond reality        |
| Wasted on the shores   | All alone in desperation now the time is gone          |
| On the blackest waves in hells domain                        | Lost inside you'll never find Lost within my own mind  |
| We (2) as they go  | Day after day this misery must go on                   |
| Through fire, pain and once again we know                    | So far away we wait for the day                        |
| So now we fly ever free                                      | For the light (10) so wasted and gone                  |
| We're free before the thunderstorm                           | We feel the pain of a lifetime lost in a thousand days |
| On (4) the wilderness our quest carries on                   | Through the fire and the flames we carry on            |
| Far (5) the sundown, far beyond the                          | Now here we stand with their blood on our hands        |
| moonlight  | We fought so hard now can we understand                |
| Deep inside our hearts and all our souls                     | I'll break the seal of this curse if I possibly can    |
| So far away we (6) for the day                               | For freedom of every man                               |
| For the light source so wasted and gone                      | So far away we wait for the day                        |
| We feel the pain of a lifetime lost in a thousand days       | For the light source so wasted and gone                |
| Through the fire and the flames we carry on                  | We feel the pain of a lifetime lost in a thousand days |
| As the red day is dawning                                    | Through the fire and the flames we carry on            |
| And the lightning cracks the sky                             |  |
| They raise their hands to the heavens above                  |  |
| As we send (7) to their lies                                 |  |
