City On The Hill by Casting Crowns

Fill in the gaps

Did you hear of the city on a hill?		It was the (7)	of the old
Said one old man to the other		It was the story of the poor m	an
It once shined (1) and it would be shining st	ill	That needed be told
But they all started turning on each other		It is the rhythm of the dancers	S
You see the poets (2) the dancers we	ere	That gives the (8)	life shallow		It is the spirit of the poets
And the (3) thought the poets were we	ak	That gives the (9)	strength to fight
And the elders saw the young ones as foolish		It is the fire of the young ones
And the rich man never heard the poor man speak		It is the wisdom of the old
And one by one they ran away		It is the story of the poor man
With their made up minds to leave it all behind		That's needing to be told
And the light began to fade		One by one, will we run away?
In the city on a hill		With our made up minds to leave it all behind
The city on a hill		As the light begins to fade
Each one (4) that they knew better		In the city on a hill?
But (5) were (6)	by	One by one, will we run away?
design		With our (10) up minds to leave it all behind
Instead of standing strong together		As the light begins to fade
They let their differences divide		In the city on a hill?
And one by one they ran away		The city on a hill
With their made up minds to leave it all behind		Come home
And the light began to fade		And the Father's calling still
In the city on a hill		Come home
The city on a hill		To the city on the hill
And the world is searchin' still		Come home
But it was the rhythm of the dancers
That gave the poets life
It was the spirit of the poets
That gave the soldiers strength to fight
It was the fire of the young ones
