City On The Hill by Casting Crowns

It was the fire of the young ones

Fill in the gaps

Did you hear of the (1) on a hill?	It was the wisdom of the old
Said one old man to the other	It was the (20) of the poor man
It once shined (2) and it would be shining still	That needed be told
But (3) all started turning on each other	It is the (21) of the dancers
You see the (4) thought the dancers	That gives the poets life
(5) shallow	It is the (22) of the poets
And the (6) thought the poets were weak	That gives the soldiers strength to fight
And the elders saw the young ones as foolish	It is the fire of the young ones
And the (7) man never heard the poor man speak	It is the wisdom of the old
And one by one they ran away	It is the story of the (23) man
With their made up (8) to (9) it all	That's needing to be told behind	One by one, will we run away?
And the light (10) to fade	With our made up (24) to leave it all behind
In the (11) on a hill	As the (25) begins to fade
The (12) on a hill	In the city on a hill?
Each one thought that (13) knew better	One by one, will we run away?
But (14) (15) different by design	With our made up (26) to leave it all behind
Instead of standing strong together	As the light begins to fade
They let their differences divide	In the city on a hill?
And one by one they ran away	The city on a hill
With (16) made up minds to leave it all behind	Come home
And the (17) began to fade	And the Father's calling still
In the city on a hill	Come home
The city on a hill	To the (27) on the hill
And the world is searchin' still	Come home
But it was the (18) of the dancers
That gave the poets life
It was the spirit of the poets
That gave the (19) strength to fight
