She was working in a topless place

Tangled Up In Blue (Live) by Bob Dylan

She was layin' in bed		And I stopped in for a beer
Wondering if she'd changed it all		I just kept looking at the sight of her face
If her hair was still red		In the spotlight so clear
Her folks they said their lives together		And later on when the crowd thinned out
Sure was gonna be rough		I was just about to do the same
They never did like mama's homemade dress		She was standing there right beside my chair
Papa's bankbook wasn't big enough		Said, "Don't tell me, let me guess your name?"
And he was standing on the side of the road		I muttered something underneath my breath
Rain falling on my shoes		She studied the lines on my face
Heading out for the east coast		I must admit I felt a little uneasy
Lord knows he's paid some dues		When she bent down to tie the laces of my shoe
Getting through		Tangled up in blue
Tangled up in blue		I lived with them on Montague Street
She was married when they first met		In a basement down the stairs
Soon to be divorced		There was music in the (5) at night
He helped her out of a jam, I guess		And revolution in the air
But he used a little too much force		Then he started into dealing with slaves
And they drove that car as far as they	could	And something inside of him died
Abandoned it out west		She had to sell everything she owned
Split up on a dark, sad night		And froze up inside
Both agreeing it was best		And when it all came crashing down
	(2) at him	And when it all came crashing down I became withdrawn
