Tangled Up In Blue (Live) by Bob Dylan

Early one morning, the sun was shinin'	She was working in a topless place
She was layin' in bed	And I stopped in for a beer
Wondering if she'd changed it all	I just kept (11) at the sight of her face
If her hair was still red	In the spotlight so clear
Her folks they (1) lives together	And later on when the (12)
Sure was gonna be rough	(13) out
They never did like mama's homemade dress	I was just about to do the same
Papa's bankbook wasn't big enough	She was standing there right (14) my chair
And he was standing on the side of the road	Said, "Don't tell me, let me guess your name?"
Rain falling on my shoes	I muttered something underneath my breath
Heading out for the east coast	She studied the lines on my face
Lord knows he's paid (3) dues	I (15) admit I felt a little uneasy
Getting through	When she bent down to tie the laces of my shoe
Tangled up in blue	Tangled up in blue
She was married when (4) first met	I lived with them on Montague Street
Soon to be divorced	In a basement down the stairs
He helped her out of a jam, I guess	There was music in the cafes at night
But he (5) a (6) too much force	And revolution in the air
And they drove that car as far as they could	Then he started (16) dealing (17)
Abandoned it out west	slaves
Split up on a dark, sad night	And (18) inside of him died
Both agreeing it was best	She had to sell (19) she owned
And she (7) around to look at him	And froze up inside
As he was walking away	And when it all (20) crashing down

Saying over his shoulder "We'll meet again someday on the avenue"	I became withdrawn The only thing I knew how to do
