Well we all have a face		She refused to even answer
That we (1) away forever		It was then I felt the stranger
And we take them out		Kick me right between the eyes
And show ourselves
When everyone has gone		Well we all fall in love
Some are satin (2) are steel		But we disregard the danger
Some are silk and some are leather		Though we share so many secrets
They're the faces of the stranger		There are some we (8) tell
But we love to try them on		Why were you so surprised
Well we all fall in love		That you never saw the stranger
But we disregard the danger		Did you ever let your lover see
Though we share so many secrets		The stranger in yourself?
There are some we never tell		Don't be afraid to try again
Why (3) you so surprised		Everyone goes south
That you never saw the stranger		Every now and then
Did you (4) let your lover see
The stranger in yourself?		You've done it why can't someone else?
Don't be afraid to try again		You should know by now
Everyone goes south		You've been there yourself
Every now and then		You may never understand
		How the stranger is inspired
You've done it, why can't (5)	else?	But he isn't always evil
You (6) know by now		And he is not always wrong
You've been there yourself		Though you drown in good intentions
Once I used to believe		You will (9) (10)	the fire
I was such a great romancer		You'll give in to your desire
Then I came (7) to a woman		When the stranger comes along
That I could not recognize
When I pressed her for a reason
