Another Sad Love Song by Toni Braxton

Since you've (1) gone	Racking my (10) like crazy
I've been (2) (3)	Guess I'm all torn up
(4) lately	Be it fast or slow
With my mind messed up	It doesn't let go
Jumped in my car tried to clear my mind	Or shake me
Didn't help me	Oh, baby
I guess I'm all messed up now baby	Here comes the strings
Soon as I jumped into my ride	Then somebody sings
Those memories start to play	Only takes a beat
A song comes on, on the radio	And then it starts killing me, darling
And there you are baby once again	Only takes one note, I tell you, from that radio
It's just another sad love song	It's just another lonely love song
Racking my brain (5) crazy	It's just another sad love song
Guess I'm all torn up	Racking my brain like crazy
Be it fast or slow	(You know you got me going)
It doesn't let go	Guess I'm all torn up (going crazy baby)
Or shake me	Be it fast or slow
And it's all because of you	It doesn't let go
Since you've been gone	Or shake me
I (6) thinking about you baby	And it's all because of you
Gets me all choked up	So sad, so sad
This heart of mine	So sad, so sad love song
Keeps (7) of you and it's crazy baby	And it's all because of you
You'd think I'd had enough, yeah	So sad, so sad
As (8) as I get you out my head	So sad, so sad love song
I'm in my car again, ooh darling
Just one request from the radio
I'm back in love sugar once again
It's just another sad (9) song
