Fall For You by Secondhand Serenade

| The (1) thing about tonight's that we're not fighting | Because a (20) like you is                             |
|---|--|
| Could it be that we have been this way before         | (21) to find   |
| I know you don't think that I am trying               | It's impossible  |
| I (2) you're (3) thin                                 | So breathe in so deep                                  |
| (4) to the core                                       | Breathe me in  |
| But hold your breathe                                 | I'm yours to keep                                      |
| Because tonight will be the (5) that I                | And hold onto your words                               |
| (6) fall for you                                      | Cuz talk is cheap                                      |
| Over again  | And remember me tonight                                |
| Don't (7) me (8) my mind                              | When your asleep                                       |
| Or I wont live to see another day                     | Because tonight (22) be the night that I will fall for |
| I swear it's true                                     | you  |

| Your impossible to find                               | Don't (23) me change my mind                           |
| This is not what I intended                           | Or I wont live to see another day                      |
| I always (10) to you i'd never (11)                   | I (24) it's true                                       |

| But I (12) you (14)                                   | Over again   |
| the start   | Don't make me change my mind                           |
| Ohhhh   | Or I wont live to see (29) day                         |
| But hold your breathe                                 | I swear it's true                                      |
| Because tonight will be the (15) that I will          | Because a girl like you is impossible to find          |
| (16) for you  | Your impossible to find                                |
