Concrete Angel by Martina McBride She walks to school with the lunch she packed

She walks to school with the lunch she packed	She stands hard as a stone
Nobody knows what she's holding back	In a world that she can't rise above
Wearing the same (1) she wore yesterday	But her dreams give her wings
She hides the bruises with the linen and lace (oh)	And she flies to a place
The teacher wonders but she doesn't ask	Where she's loved
It's hard to see the pain behind the mask	Concrete angel
Bearing the burden of a secret storm	A statue stands in a shaded place
Sometimes she wishes she was never born	An angel girl with an (5) face
Through the (2) and the rain	A (6) is written on a polished rock
She stands hard as a stone	A broken heart (7) the world forgot
In a world that she can't rise above	Through the wind and the rain
But her dreams give her wings	She stands (8) as a stone
And she flies to a place	In a (9) (10) she can't rise
Where she's loved	But her dreams give her wings
Concrete angel	And she flies to a place
Somebody cries in the middle of the night	Where she's loved
The neighbors hear but they turn out the light	Concrete Angel
A (3) (4) caught in the hands of fate
When morning comes it will be too late
