There's no time, you're buried within		These (7) will keep you safe
They (1) what you've been through		(So dead yet so brilliant)
Hide yourself		Still you're pretending
The clock states the end and it's ticking for you		Dying to overrun
Worship yourself		There has to be a way
A liar shows no mercy		You've always had your way
Behind your shining smile		To hide your fears
You're the forsaken one		I won't allow
These (2) will keep you safe		Behind your shining smile
(So dead yet so brilliant)		You're the forsaken one
Still you're pretending		These lies (8) keep you safe
Dying to overrun		(So (9) yet so brilliant)
There has to be a way		Still you're pretending
Show your scars		Dying to overrun
Facing the end you (3) always be true		There has to be a way
Ain't no way		Worship yourself
