

Fill in the gaps

In the suburbs I	Sometimes I can't believe it
I (1) to drive	I'm (5) past the feeling, (6) the
And you told me we'd never survive	night
Grab your mother's keys, we are leaving	So can you understand
You always seemed so sure	Why I want a daughter while I'm still young?
That one day we'd be fighting	I want to hold her hand
In a suburban war	And show her some beauty before
Your part of town against me	All this damage is done
I saw you standing on the opposite shore	But if it's too much to ask, if it's too much to ask
But by the time the first bombs fell	Then (7) me a son
We were already bored	Under the overpass
We were already, already bored	In the parking lot we're still waiting
Sometimes I can't believe it	It's already past
I'm moving past the feeling	So move your (8) from hot pavement
Sometimes I can't believe it	And into the grass
I'm moving past the feeling again	'Cause it's already past
The (2) want to be so hard	It's already, (9) past
But in my dreams we're still screaming	Sometimes I can't (10) it
And running through the yard	I'm moving past the feeling
When all of the walls that they built	Sometimes I can't believe it
In the 70's finally fall	I'm moving past the feeling again
And all of the houses they built	I'm moving past the feeling
In the 70's finally fall	I'm moving past the feeling
Meant (3) at all?	In my dreams we're still screaming
It meant (4) at all, it meant nothing	We're still screaming
Sometimes I can't believe it	We're still screaming
I'm moving past the feeling
