

Streets Of London by Ralph McTell

Have you seen the old man In the closed down market Kicking up the papers with his worn out shoes In his eyes you see no pride Hand held loosely at his side Yesterday's paper telling yesterday's news So how can you tell me you're lonely And say for you that the sun don't shine Let me take you by the hand And lead you (1)____ _____ the (2)__ of London I'll show you something To make you change your mind Have you seen the old girl Who (3)_____ the streets of London Dirt in her hair and her clothes in rags She's no time for talking She just keeps right on walking Carrying her home in two (4)___ _____ bags So how can you tell me you're lonely And say for you that the sun don't shine Let me take you by the hand And lead you through the streets of London I'll show you something To make you change your mind In the all night cafe at a quarter past eleven Same old man sitting there on his own Looking at the world over the rim of his tea cup And each tea (5)_____ an hour And he (6)_____ home alone

So how can you tell me you're lonely
And say for you that the sun don't shine
Let me take you by hand
And lead you through the streets of London
I'll show you something
To make you change your mind
Have you (7) the old man
Outside the seaman's mission
Memory fading with
The medal ribbons that he wears
And in our winter city the rain cries a (8)	pity
For one (9) forgotten hero
And a world that doesn't care
So how can you tell me you're lonely
And say for you that the sun don't shine
Let me take you by the hand
And lead you through the streets of London
I'll show you something
To make you change your mind
How can you tell me you're lonely
And say for you that the sun don't shine
Let me take you by the hand
And lead you through the streets of London
I'll (10) you something
To make you change your mind
