Streets Of London by Ralph McTell

Have you (1) the old man	So how can you tell me you're lonely
In the closed down market	And say for you that the sun don't shine
Kicking up the (2) with his (3) out	Let me take you by hand shoes	And (14) you (15) the
In his eyes you see no pride	(16) of London
Hand held loosely at his side	I'll show you something
Yesterday's paper (4) yesterday's news	To (17) you change your mind
So how can you tell me you're lonely	Have you (18) the old man
And say for you that the sun don't shine	Outside the seaman's mission
Let me take you by the hand	Memory fading with
And lead you through the streets of London	The medal ribbons that he wears
I'll show you something	And in our winter (19) the (20) cries a
To make you change your mind	(21) pity
Have you seen the old girl	For one (22) forgotten hero
Who (5) the streets of London	And a (23) that doesn't care
Dirt in her hair and her (6) in rags
She's no (7) for talking	So how can you tell me you're lonely
She just keeps right on walking	And say for you that the sun don't shine
Carrying her home in two (8) bags	Let me take you by the hand
So how can you tell me you're lonely	And lead you through the streets of London
And say for you that the sun don't shine	I'll (24) you something
Let me (9) you by the hand	To make you change your mind
And (10) you (11) the streets of
London	How can you tell me you're lonely
I'll show you something	And say for you that the sun don't shine
To make you change your mind	Let me (25) you by the hand
In the all night cafe at a (12) past eleven	And lead you through the (26) of London
Same old man sitting there on his own	I'll show you something
Looking at the world over the rim of his tea cup	To make you change your mind
And each tea (13) an hour
And he wanders home alone
