There's vultures and thieves at your back

Fill in the gaps

In The Arms Of The Angel by Sarah Mclachlan

On and all constitues contitues for that account about	The stand bears on training bear on building the line
Spend all your time waiting for that second chance	The storm keeps on twisting, keep on building the lies
For the break that will make it ok	That you make up for all that you lack
There's always (1) reason	Don't make no difference, escaping one last time
To feel not good enough	It's easier to believe
And it's hard at the end of the day	In this sweet madness, oh this glorious sadness
I (2) some distraction, oh beautiful release	That brings me to my knees
Memories seep from my veins	In the arms of the Angel, far away from here
They may be empty and weightless, and maybe	From this dark, cold hotel room
I'll (3) (4) peace tonight	And the endlessness that you fear
In the arms of the Angel, fly away from here	You are pulled from the wreckage
From this dark, cold hotel room	Of your silent reverie
And the endlessness that you fear	In the (7) of the Angel
You are pulled from the wreckage	May you (8) some comfort here
Of your silent reverie	In the arms of the Angel
You're in the arms of the Angel	May you find (9) comfort here
May you find (5) comfort here
So tired of the straight line, and (6)
