A Whiter Shade Of Pale by Procol Harum

We skipped a light fandango	As the miller (10) his tale
Turned cartwheels 'cross the floor	That her face, at first just ghostly
I was feeling (1) of seasick	Turned a (11) (12) of pale
(But the) (2) called out for more	She said there is no reason
The room was (3) harder	And the truth is plain to see
As the (4) flew away	But I wandered through my playing cards
When we called out for another drink	Would not let her be
The waiter brought a tray	One of (13) vestal virgins
And so it was that later	Who were leaving for the coast
As the miller told his tale	At the (14) my (15) (16)
That her face at first just ghostly	open
Turned a whiter shade of pale	They might just as (17) (18)
She said, I'm home on (5) leave	(19) closed
Though in truth we were at sea	And so it was that later
So I (6) her by the (7) glass	As the (20) told his tale
And would not let her be	That her (21) at first (22) ghostly
Saying, you (8) be the mermaid	Turned a (23) (24) of pale
Who (9) neptune for a ride	And so it was that later
But she smiled at me so sadly	As the (25) his tale
That my anger straightway died	That her face at first just ghostly
And so it was that later	Turned a whiter shade of pale
