

Fill in the gaps

| You bite through the big wall, the big wall bites back |
|--|
| You just sit (1) and sulk, sit there and grow old      |
| You are so pretty (2) you're on your knees             |
| Disaffected, and eager to please                       |
| Sometimes you sulk, (3) you burn                       |
| God rest (4) soul                                      |
| When the loving comes and we've already gone           |
| Just like (5) dad, you'll never change                 |
| Each (6) it comes it eats me alive                     |
| I try to behave but it (7) me alive                    |
| So I declare a holiday                                 |
| Fall asleep, Drift away                                |
| Sometimes you sulk, sometimes you burn                 |
| God rest your soul                                     |
| When the loving comes and we've already gone           |
| Just like your dad, you'll never change                |
| Sometimes you sulk, (8) you burn                       |
| God rest your soul                                     |
| When the loving comes and we've already gone           |
| Just like your dad, You'll never change                |
