You never can tell (Pulp Fiction BSO) by Chuck Berry

it was a teenage (1)	The rapid (13) of the music fell
And the old (2) wished them well	C'est la vie say the old folks,
You could see that Pierre	It (14) to show you (15) can tell
Did truly (3) the mademoiselle	They bought a souped-up jitney,
And now the young monsieur and madam	It was a cherry red 53
Have rung the (4) bell	And (16) it (17) to new orleans
C'est la vie say the old folks,	To celebrate their anniversary
It goes to (5) you (6) can tell	It was there (18) Pierre was (19)
(7) (8) off an
(9)	To the lovely mademoiselle
With a two-room Roebuck sale	C'est la vie say the old folks,
The coolerator was crammed	It goes to show you (20) can tell
With tv dinners and ginger ale	They had a teenage (21)
And when Pierre found work,	And the old (22) wished (23) well
The (10) money comin` (11)	You could see that Pierre out well	Did truly (24) the mademoiselle
C'est la vie say the old folks	And now the (25) monsieur and madam
It goes to show you never can tell	Have rung the chapel bell
They had a hi-fi phono,	C'est la vie say the old folks,
Boy, did (12) let it blast	It goes to (26) you (27) can tell
Seven hundred little records,
All blues, rock, rhythm, and jazz
But when the sun went down,
