Chelsea Hotel No 2 by Lana del Rey

I remember you well in the Chelsea Hotel	But for me you would make an exception
You were talking so brave and so sweet	And clenching your fist for the ones (6) us
Giving me head on the unmade bed	Who are oppressed by the figures of beauty
While the limousines wait in the street	You fixed yourself, you said
Those (1) the reasons and (2) was	"Well never mind, we are ugly but we (7) the
New York	music"
We were running for the money and the flesh	And you got away, didn't you baby?
And that was called love	You just turned your back on the crowd
For the workers in song	And you got away, I never (8) heard you say
Probably still is for those of them left	I need you, I don't need you
Ah, but you got away, didn't you baby?	I need you, I don't need you
You just turned your back on the crowd	And all of that jiving around
You got away, I never once heard you say	I don't mean to suggest that I (9) you the best
I need you, I don't (3) you	I can't keep track of each fallen robin
I need you, I don't need you	I remember you well in the Chelsea Hotel
And all of (4) jiving around	That's all, I don't even (10) of you that often
I remember you (5) in the Chelsea Hotel
You were famous, your heart was a legend
You told me again you preferred handsome men
