

Fill in the gaps

| Well we'll kiss for that's how it begins        | Because (5) won't buy love            |
|---|---------------------------------------|
| We'll (1) just to (2) our skins                 | And nor will they sell                |
| I'll think of her and you'll think of him       | And there is no love in this hotel    |
| And we'll talk to keep                          | (6) we're walking (7) we know too     |
| The silence from our ears                       | well                                  |
| And we'll laugh because we're so close to tears | We are both lost                      |
| We're just lonely, you know                     | We are both lost                      |
| That's why we're here                           | And we won't be found                 |
| Because you don't taste (3) you should          | She was my compass                    |
| And you don't fit in my arms like she would     | He was your map                       |
| Lying in the dark, it's understood              | We've come too far to be turning back |
| We are (4) lost                                 | And we'll sit on our single beds      |
| And we won't be found                           | (8) on our hearts                     |
| We will wake up with each other in our paws     | And (9) on our threads                |
| You cover over white bits                       | For we know                           |
| Like I've not seen them before                  | The last unicorn is dead              |
| We'll say goodbye and then we'll say no more    |                                       |
