Fill in the gaps

Behind The Wall by Tracy Chapman

| Last night I heard the screaming | And as they (4) out the door |
|----------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| Loud voices behind the wall | The (5) well up in her eyes |
| Another (1) night for me | Last night I heard the screaming |
| It won't do no good to call | Then a silence that chilled my soul |
| The police | Prayed that I was dreaming |
| Always come late | When I saw the (6) in the road |
| If they come at all | And the (7) said |
| Last night I heard the screaming | 'I'm here to keep the peace |
| Loud voices behind the wall | Will the crowd disperse |
| Another sleepless night for me | I think we all could use (8) sleep' |
| It won't do no (2) to call | Last night I heard the screaming |
| The police | Loud voices behind the wall |
| Always come late | Another sleepless night for me |
| If they come at all | It won't do no good to call |
| And when they arrive | The police |
| they say (3) can't interfere | Always come late |
| With domestic affairs | If they come at all |
| Between a man and his wife | |
