Til the casket drops by ZZ Ward

And you asked me, how long I'd stay by your side

It was the coldest night of the year	And so I answered
(1) covered (2) lamps and	With only just one reply
Belvedere	'Til the casket drops
The moon was just a sliver	'Til my dying day
The light was fading	'Til my heartbeat stops
The war was on its way	'Til my legs just break
And we were waiting	Til the casket drops
You asked me, how long I'd stay by (3) side	So lay your burden down baby
And so I answered	And (7) me out the door
With only (4) one reply	We can't escape this ricochet
Til the casket drops	I'm ready for (8) war
Til my dying day	(bis)
Til my heartbeat stops	'Til the casket drops
Til my (5) just break	'Til my dying day
Til the casket drops	'Til my (9) stops
A house made out of glass, will surely shatter	'Til my legs just break
So we (6) a fortress, of red bricks and ladders	(bis)
The ground, it started shaking	'Til the casket drops
The bombs are falling
We could've walked away
We had a warning
