

Fill in the gaps

A long, long time ago	When I went down to the sacred store
I can still remember	Where I'd (6) the music years before
How that music used to make me smile	But the man there said the (7) wouldn't play
And I knew that if I had my chance	Well now, in the streets the children screamed
I could (1) (2) people dance	The lovers cried, and the poets dreamed
And maybe they'd be happy for a while	But not a word was spoken
Did you write the book of love?	The church bells all (8) broken
And do you have faith in God above	And the three men I admire the most
If the Bible tells you so?	The Father, Son and the Holy Ghost
Now do you believe in Rock 'n' roll	They caught the last train for the coast
And can music save your mortal soul?	The day the music died
And can you teach me how to dance real slow?	We started singing
Well, I (3) that you're in love with him	Bye, bye, Miss American Pie
Cause I saw you dancin' in the gym	Drove my (9) to the levee
You both kicked off your shoes	But the levee was dry
Man, I dig those rhythm and blues	And good old boys were drinkin' whiskey and rye
I was a lonely teenage broncin' buck	Singing this'll be the day that I die
With a pink (4) and a pick-up truck	This'll be the day that I die
But I knew that I was out of luck	Bye, bye, Miss American Pie
The day the music died	Drove my Chevy to the levee
I started singing	But the levee was dry
Bye, bye, Miss American Pie	And good old boys were drinkin' (10) and
Drove my Chevy to the levee	rye
But the levee was dry	Singing this'll be the day that I die
And good old boys were drinkin' whiskey and rye	This'll be the day that I die
Singing this'll be the day that I die	We started singing
This'll be the day that I die	We started singing
I met a girl who sang the blues	We started singing
And I asked her for some (5) news	We started singing
But she just smiled and turned away
