The key to my survival	You're no son, you're no son of mine
Was never in much doubt	But where should I go and what should I do
The question was how I (1) keep sane	You're no son, you're no son of mine
Trying to (2) a way out	But I came here for help, I came (7) for you
Things (3) never easy for me	Well the years they passed slowly
Peace of mind was (4) to find	I thought about him everyday
And I (5) a place where I could hide	What would I do, if we passed on the street
Somewhere I could call mine	Would I keep running away
I didn't think much about it	In and out of (8) places
Til it started happening all the time	Soon I'd have to face the facts
Soon I was living with the fear everyday	We'd have to sit down and talk it over
Of what might happen at night	And that would mean going back
I couldn't stand to hear the	They say time is a healer
Crying of my mother	And now my wounds are not the same
And I remember when	I rang the bell with my heart in my mouth
I swore that, that would be the	I had to hear what he'd say
Last they'd see of me	He sat me down to talk to me
And I never went home again	He looked me straght in the eyes
They say time is a healer	He said:
And new my wounds are not the same	You're no son, you're no son of mine
I rang the bell (6) my heart in my mouth	You're no son, you're no son of mine
I had to hear what he'd say	You walked out, you left us behind
He sat me down to talk to me	And you're no son, you're no son of mine
He looked me straght in the eyes	Oh, his words how they hurt me, I'll never (9)
He said:	it
You're no son, you're no son of mine	And as the time, it went by, I lived to regret it
You're no son, you're no son of mine	You're no son, you're no son of mine
You walked out, you left us behind	But where should I go and what should I do
And you're no son, you're no son of mine	You're no son, you're no son of mine
Oh, his words how they hurt me, I'll never forget it	But I came here for help, I came (10) for you
And as the time, it went by I lived to regret it
